[RSVP] Beyond the Sharing Economy to Commons-Based Sharing City-The Commons Transition Plan for the City of Ghent in Belgium

Main theme
There are alternatives to the more commercial forms of the sharing economy, which are based on the urban commons and the communities that support and use them. Michel Bauwens will explain the experience of the 500 urban commons in Ghent, as well as his proposals to the city for new public-commons institutions to facilitate the cooperation between citizens and their city.
